Code of Conduct

The Community Foundation of South Central Kentucky and the Laura Goad Turner Charitable Foundation are honored to partner with the College Heights Foundation in providing scholarship support to deserving students who are pursuing a post-secondary degree.

In establishing this fund, the desire is to select students who demonstrate not only a talent and enthusiasm for learning, but also a values-based lifestyle. Participation in this scholarship program is dependent on the student abiding by these principles.

- Scholarship recipients will behave ethically and in a manner which upholds the good name of the University, and which serves as a positive reflection on the Foundation.

- Scholarship recipients will be expected to comply with the rules and regulations of the college; will maintain a high standard of integrity and honesty; will respect the rights, privileges and property of other members of the college community; and will not interfere with legitimate college affairs.

- As a recipient of this award, the student is also a representative of the broader community of Bowling Green and South Central Kentucky, as such; scholarship recipients will be expected to obey all laws of the community, conducting themselves as responsible, respectful members of the greater society in which they live.

To preserve the integrity of this scholarship, and out of respect for the spirit in which it was established, the Foundation reserves the right to terminate a scholarship at will.
